AN IDEAL FARM ✓

On this farm Thomas Cat has quite an interesting experience he sees Farmer Al milking a cow and thinks he can do the same. But after a struggle the cow kicks him to another part of the yard. Tommy then becomes interested in chickens which farmer Al advertises as "An egg a day hens".

The cat suddenly gets a bright idea and builds a light tight box, fixes artificial illumination inside, then gets a healthy hen for his experiment. With the hen inside facing a calendar, he starts making the days and nights come pretty fast. The hen is a little alarmed at first but tries to keep the pace, the speed proves to great and the hen collapses. She falls out through the box, turning about she sees the cat still working the switch which controls the light.

Then the battle is on when last seen the "Egg a day hen" is chasing Tom Cat for dear life. Anyway the cat thinks that "An egg in the hand is worth two in the hen",
